

Program Learning Outcomes

Environmental Horticulture and Urban Forestry

1. A basic knowledge of the principles and practices of plant growth, development, production and utilization.
2. An understanding of environmental planning and landscape management processes involving plants and people in urban and natural settings.
3. A basic understanding of the interrelationships among the various components of the managed landscape ecosystem, including plants, people, animals, soil, water, air, and microorganisms.