

Program Learning Outcomes

Entomology

1. Have knowledge of the Class Insecta that includes its defining characteristics, its broad phylogenetic placement, and its diversity.
2. Be able to articulate positive and negative impacts of insects on human society and economy.
3. Know a variety of the ecological roles of insects (e.g., as herbivores, detritivores, predators, parasites and disease vectors, pollinators, and prey for other organisms).