

Program Learning Outcomes International Relations

1. Explain the causes and consequences of key phenomena in International Relations.
2. Understand the strengths and weaknesses of different disciplinary approaches to the study of International Relations.
3. Communicate in a modern foreign language of major significance in international affairs.
4. Rigorously analyze and evaluate competing theories of international relations.